

We are a family-run enterprise with a long tradition in the bodywork and automotive engineering sector.

It steadily developed and, over the years, specialized in the construction of bodywork for all categories of

.Just as the manufacturing shops and office building were continually enlarged to accommodate the ever growing range of products, the size of our staff increased too.

Presentation of the Lüneburg-Stade Chamber of Commerce award for outstanding performance to the m

Today, a team of 30 dedicated and excellently trained specialists is available to serve our customers. The competence and experience of our staff place us in the unique position of being able to fulfill both the high demands of modern technology and the requirements of today's customers.

Our firm is characterized by a successful mixture of tradition and advanced technology, of quality and know-how.

The staff of Willenbrock Fahrzeugbau GmbH

BeSt Quality AND HIGH Standards

Our wide product range comprises the manufacture of complete vehicle bodies for all types of bus

All our products fulfill the highest standards and are of outstanding quality.

Our vehicle bodies and components consist of highest quality sandwich panels which we manufacture u
We are thus also enabled to realize ideas and innovation originating in our own company. Using a speci

Assembly workshop